

Sage Brush's Group Survey for Participants

<http://freedomlineenterprises.com>

1-778-977-2318

janeta@freedomlineenterprises.com

Administer before using Issue 1 and after Issue 12 for each Volume of The Loving Community

Grade the following five questions as:

Very Important—Important—Neutral—Unimportant—Very Unimportant

Increase level of cooperation with other community groups, agencies, or area business

Improve communication among group members

Increase of analyzed citizen social needs for group members to help meet its recommendations

Community debriefing and assessing implemented strategies and tactics [assuming there are some] to reduce community strife.

Identify at-risk individuals (victims, offenders, fellow members, the ill, addicts seeking recovery, and so on)

Grade the following question as:

Daily—Weekly—Biweekly—Monthly—Uncertain

How often should representative members of each area community get together to review their respective commonalities of outstanding social needs?

Would you be interested in participating in a community project to improve friendship skills and understanding?

(Y/N)

Is there someone you would like to recommend to participate in this survey-infoletter programme?

Special community groups and business specialists should be established for ongoing planning, implementation, and evaluation of community friendship programmes for specific issues. Which of the following best describes what you think about this statement?

Strongly agree—agree—neither—disagree—strongly disagree—don't know

Are you willing to participate in reading/sharing in discussing The Loving Community infoletter weekly for a year to prepare you to care for yourself and others better?

(Y/N)